Raku

NEW ADDITIONS FOR FALL 2017

Reactive texture through print

Studio Prints collections are a contemporary take on traditional designs revived from Churchill's archives. Raku, a range in the Studio Prints collection is inspired by the traditional glazing process, known as Raku firing which creates expressive and exciting results. Manufactured in the UK, Raku inspired prints are achieved with Churchill's innovative print process. The print is positioned directly under the glaze, creating a protective layer over the decoration. Emulating an artisan glaze finish, Studio Prints Raku has all the durability and technical reassurance required for the hospitality environment.

Raku

As the revival of studio pottery continues, Raku celebrates the heritage of traditional glazing techniques. A range of eight new plates and bowls in organic shapes with a stunning textured pooling effect are new additions to the collection. Items are available in both Topaz Blue and Quartz Black. Ideal for individual statement dishes or to present alongside existing Raku items and a range of other Churchill products.

Well travelled diners are increasingly adventurous when it comes to trying new cuisines, dishes and ingredients. This desire and demand for the new and exciting sees fusions of world flavours; Japanese, Peruvian, Korean, Mexican and Vietnamese intermixed with western cooking techniques. The healthy aspect of world foods are emphasised as we hear phrases like "superfood bowls".

The casualisation of eating out and the strong influence from street food often means bowls replace plates as the choice vessel.

BREAKFAST
& BRUNCH

As an affordable and family friendly alternative to dinner out, breakfast and brunch continues to grow as a trend. Diners look forward to long and lazy weekend brunches with their family or a few breakfast cocktails with their friends.

Monochrome and Studio Prints Raku bring colour and texture to the tabletop. The perfect platform for showcasing innovative breakfast and brunch offering and hot drinks.
